

VEL PHILLIPS | DREAM BIG DREAMS

Join us for a free professional development session during which you and your fellow educators will have the opportunity to explore ways of helping students engage in positive, open-minded discussions about race, diversity and inclusion.

When: Tuesday, April 11, 2017 from 4:00pm-6:30pm

Where: Hooper Community Center, 36 Broad Street, Oshkosh, WI 54901

The session will include a screening of Vel Phillips: Dream Big Dreams, a documentary about the life and legacy of Vel Phillips, one of Wisconsin's greatest civil rights pioneers. Educators will then take a tour of the free, teacher-created educational resources connected to the documentary that address diversity and inclusion, as well as participate in a discussion on race and equity in the classroom.

Parking available. Refreshments will be served!

To RSVP, please contact John Dollar at education@wpt.org.

Since 2014, Fit has trained more than 2,000 people at nonprofit organizations, businesses, faith communities, and educational institutions throughout the Fox Valley and elsewhere to rave reviews.

Here is some of the feedback that we have received:

"Tracey's presentation has generated some great conversations amongst our employees. It challenged all of us to think about the intent versus impact of our communications with customers and co-workers. One of the best training classes we've brought in-house in years."

~Melody Lewis, City of Appleton

"Finally! A discussion about race that was helpful, practical, non-accusatory, and honest! Thank you!"

"Tracey's presentation was my absolute favorite today. She was passionate, engaging and informative."

"Loved the energy and the topic is crucial to keep building on."

"New perspective. Made us think."

"Positive engagement on race literacy."

"Enlightening; makes a difficult topic welcoming."
